ARAMARK CORRECTIONAL SERVICES, LLC,
WESTCHESTER COUNTY, CHARLES BUTLER,
COFFEY KOHLI, PENNY STEWART, CRAIG
BOISSY,

Defendants.

NOTICE OF MOTION,
MOTION FOR EXTENSION
OF TIME

Pltf's request for an extension of time is denied without prejudice subject to extensions granted by Magistrate Judge McCarthy. The Clerk of Court is directed to change Pltf's address as detailed in this document, mail a copy of this endorsement to Pltf at the newly added address and terminate the motion (doc. 57).

Dated: March 18, 2021

SO ORDERED:

TO NELSON S. ROMAN, U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE:

HON. NELSON S. ROMAN
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Plaintiff come before the Court and all parties concerned to move the Court for a brief time extension. A good faith effort has been made to comply within the deadlines. Plaintiff is as you know a Pro-Se litigant with no prior knowledge of Federal Law. Plaintiff is incarcerated at Orleans Correctional Facility, in Albion N.Y. We are in the midst of a Cov-19 lockdown for (30) days, and the Law Library callout system is distressed. Plaintiff is also of Latino decent and does not read or write English very well. Plaintiff wishes to comply with the Civil Case Discovery Plan and scheduling order. Plaintiff asks the Court for a (6) day extension or whatever the Court sees fit and just. Plaintiff asks only to please the court with timely pleadings. If the extension is approved by Judge and Defense in this case Plaintiff feels he can follow any scheduling plan and or order Court sets forth with the help of the Facilities Law Library, as of this time there is no Spanish speaking Clerk, so Plaintiff will be doing all pleadings in English. Plaintiff hopes the extension will not unduly burden or prejudice the Judge or Defense in this matter.
